The following students passed Electronic Bookshelf Tests last week: Paige Beiswanger, Patrick Czahor, Samantha Fort, Kayla Hornback, Jenna Patton, Danyel Stalbaum, Eastin Tanner, and Ryan Lynch. Congratulations!

The Ecology Club will have its April meeting this Wednesday, April 12th in Mrs. Chesser's room during Success time. You won't want to miss this meeting because we are having a wildlife rehabilitator, Kim Hoover, bring in her birds to show us. Don't be late, there isn't much time and we also want to hand out field trip forms

Wednesday. See you then

Any Junior or Senior who has not voted for Prom Court. Please do so today in the H.S. Office.

The softball team finished thier game against South Newton last night that was suspended from last week due to rain. Jillian Hauptli's 14 strikeouts helped lead the Trojans to thier 2nd victory of the season beating SN 6-2. Hailey Luzadder had 2 RBI and Caitlynn Brigman added 2 hits including a double. Our record is now 2-3 and we travel to Rensselaer tonight for a 5:30 start.

We were also able to play a JV inning last night before the lightning sent everyone home. WC was up 8-1 as Hannah Taylor had 2 hits and Brittany Sizemore added a single to help lead the charge.

Don't forget, the Buy One Get One Free book fair is going on this week. Stop by to take advantage of some great buys! There's also a Spin to Win game for 25 cents or you can test your estimation skills for your chance to win one of the displayed posters buy guessing how many marshmallows are in the container. We hope you see you this week!!
