Winamac Community High School is having a Dance dedicated to Riley Children's Hospital on Friday, April 27 from 8 pm- 11:15 pm and would like to extend an invitation to the West Central High School student body. This dance will support Riley Children's Hospital and our goal to raise $1942 in order to donate a Riley Wagon in honor of all schools who participate. This is a closed dance, so only students from the schools invited will be permitted to attend. Along with a $5 entrance donation fee, students can buy shirts, or Riley Gear as well as water will be available for $1. Remember, all proceeds will go to a combined donation from all of the attending schools for a Riley Wagon. So, come out and Help us raise money for Riley and have fun at the same time!
